This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Director of the District Staff.

1. 25X1X Eduard Kowalski, Secretary-General of CADI (Centre d'Action pour la defense des Immigres), is a member of a secret committee organized to give aid to Greece. He is in charge of recruiting and "camouflaging" volunteers as well as of centralizing funds which have been subscribed to the proper French Communist Party committee by provincial sections and federations of the CADI. Kowalski is reportedly in close contact with Bassas Georgiou, Biniaris and others who are active in organizing International Brigades in France.
2. Kowalski works closely with a certain Lederman in matters concerning Jewish questions. He is also active in planning coordinated handling of refugees from Romania, Poland, Hungary and Germany and also in screening and "burying" such refugees in French Communist organizations.
